Re: Right-to-Know Law Request - dated January 9, 2019
Internal No. C-2019-003

Dear Mr. Barrouquere:

On January 9, 2019, the Office of the Governor (Office) received your request for information pursuant to the Pennsylvania Right-To-Know Law, 65 P.S. §§ 67.101, et seq. (RTKL), wherein you requested:

“documents and other material detailing communication between of Anthony Richard “Tony” Perkins and the Family Research Council and the Pennsylvania Governor’s office between January 10, 2011 and the present.”

By letter dated January 17, 2019, this Office informed you that it would require an extension of time, until no later than February 19, 2019, to review your request.

After such review, the Office has searched its records, and does not have any requested records in its possession, under its custody or its control. 65 P.S. § 67.705. In responding to requests for access to public records, an agency is not required to “create a record which does not currently exist at the time a request is received.” 65 P.S. § 67.705. An agency is also not required to produce records that are not in its possession, or within its custody or under its control. Please note that “[i]t is not a denial of access when an agency does not possess records and there is no legal obligation to obtain them (see, e.g. section 67.506(d)(1)).” See, In the Matter of Jenkins v. Pennsylvania Dep’t of State, OOR Dkt. AP 2009-065, dated April 2, 2009.
